Chapter 1 by lolz 2005

Moon turned around to see a human running after her. She ran as fast as she could, and glanced at the ground beneath her. The fog hid what was ahead of her, but it wasn't important now. She had to escape. Without looking where she was going, she padded on. Her fur stood on end, and her claws scraped the wet ground. She looked backward and saw the human was gone. She looked back ahead of her, and saw one thing. That one thing, was nothing. The ground beneath her had disappeared, and everything was dark. It felt as if she was floating in the air, which she was. She glanced around worriedly and thought of what would happen to her.
